Our Heart's Desire Auction February 11, 2006 Hyatt Regency-Bellevue

One Week Until Auction 2006!

Catalogs were included in last week's envelope.

Free Highlighter: In your envelopes today you will find a highlighter that can be used to mark your favorite items in the auction catalog! These highlighters were generously donated by Biogen Idec, makers of Avonex for Multiple Sclerosis. To learn more about MS check out www.MSActiveSource.com. Thank you Biogen Idec!

Auction Work Party: Friday, February 3, 2006 will be the auction work party putting together the bags for the auction from 9:00 am to 11:30 am in the Blessed John Room. This is a fun and easy way to get volunteer hours. Many hands make light work.

Fund-An-Item this year will benefit a COMMUNICATIONS system, which will include a newly installed intercom, synchronized bells and clocks, and lock down features at both Issaquah and Snoqualmie. What a great opportunity to protect our children.

We are still in need of baskets for packing our donated items. Please send them in ASAP.

We are beginning our search for next year's Co-chair for Auction 2007. This is a great time to start considering this very exciting and challenging role.

If you have any questions regarding the auction, please contact Lisa Scott or Susan Norwood at 425-313-9129 x342

Special thanks to all who helped make our Special Persons Day such a special event. An extra big thank you to Rita Popp who organized the reception on the Issaquah Campus and Erin Cusack who organized the reception on the Snoqualmie campus. And thanks to all the families who went out of their way — even out of state! — to make sure there was a special person present for their students!

An Extra Extra Big Thank You to Maralea Binz, who coordinated all of our Catholic Schools Week events! She is truly St. Joseph School's "Special Person!"

GOING, GOING GONE!!!

The Issaquah Lost and Found Bucket is over-flowing! Please come and see if any of the items are yours. On Friday, February 10, anything left behind is going to a local charity.
