Una Sera Italiana

It's a date! Please mark January 20, 2007 on your calendar as our school's next annual auction. Join your fellow school parents for "Una Sera Italiana" (An Italian Evening) to be held at the Bellevue Hyatt with auctioneer John Curley. What a spectacular evening it will be!

The auction procurement committee is asking for volunteers to help with procurements. Tasks can include phone calls, data entry, in-person business visits, procurement PR, stuffing envelopes, etc. With a January auction date, the procurement timeline starts now and we need help from parents at all three campuses! Please email Sharon Soldenwagner at Soldenwagner@msn.com if you are interested in helping. Getting involved in the auction is a great way to meet new people. Thank you.
